		Exclusion of the Press and Public RESOLUTION That under the provision of Section 1, Subsection 2 of the Public Bodies (Admissions to Meetings) Act 1960, the public be excluded from the remainder of the meeting on the grounds that publicity would be prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of business to be transacted ('special reasons').

Special Reasons - clarification

- Criteria which may be applied to determine "special reasons" for this purpose may include when the topic or business to be discussed by the Board is e.g.:
 - Considered by the Board to be prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business (words adapted from the Public Bodies (Admission to Meetings) Act 1960)
 - Considered by the Board to be prejudicial to the public interest by reason of other special reasons stated in the resolution and arising from the nature of that business or of the proceedings (words adapted from the 1960 Act)
 - Considered by the Board to involve information or data which is confidential and or involves events, patients, staff or other third party information which should not be disclosed by reasons of confidentiality or the protection of the rights and interests or assets of such patients, staff or other third parties
 - Considered by the Board to be commercially or otherwise confidential or which is subject to specific confidentiality commitments
 - One which involves the presentation or submission to the board of recommendations, advice, evidence or information by an adviser or third party (words adapted from the 1960 Act)
 - For any other reason considered by the Board to be a topic or business which should not, in the best interests of the Trust or the public or for any other special reason recorded by the board, be disclosed in a public meeting of the board
